PARRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

The cheapest is not always the best in cluthing, eatables, drinkables, or mything else needed to sustain life. if this is a fact with the human being, why not is the law not just as applicable to the toor dumb animal? If the stomach of the man is of great importance, why not that of his trusted beast of burdets. Men are often thankful and pay due homage to the city, or people who benefit them most. Now if hi: living is made with his horses, and vehicles in his home city, he should conscilly feel a personal pride in spend ing the bulk of his earnings in that my. This is as it should be, especially when one receives the same courtesy, gets better and purer goods, and obtains them from firms whose reputation is backed by quality and fair deatings. It is understood that a few firms in a city pot far distant are selling he essensial to the existence of the horses of this town cheaper than these contiemen think they can get the same here. When goods are bought of Alexandria dealers they are not only jure, but of a quality which makes a regniar customer of the purchaser. The reputation of Alexandria business men is worth more to them than a few dollars, and hence they can practice no deception. Stand by your town people and they will do the right thing.
